Opening Statement

On 7 June 2023 AFSCME Judicial Panel Member Denise Gilmore overturned the results of the 30 March 2023 election of AFSCME Local 696. In decision JPC 23-024, she wrote that,

“...over half of the protest items investigated by this officer were found to be valid protests and in violation of the International Constitution Elections Code and procedures set forth in the AFSCME Local Union Election Manual.”

During this second run of the election, members running under the Rabble Rousers slate have identified new, but similar protest issues we believe to be significant enough to impact the outcome of the election.

We hope you will agree with our assessment. Free and fair elections are the cornerstone of organized labor. This election committee has proven incapable of administering a free and fair election, and we request that it be disbanded. It is clear now that only AFSCME International has the knowledge and experience to correctly run an election. We request that a team from AFSCME International be dispatched to administer the 2023 election for Local 696.

In solidarity,

Sharon Thorpe

Protest 1: Montgomery Auditorium

On 14 July 2023, members of the SBU slate reserved Montgomery Auditorium for a campaign event. Montgomery Auditorium is located at 1901 Vine St. Philadelphia, PA 19103. It is on the ground floor of Parkway Central Library, a Local 696 work location.

Parkway Central Library is free and open to the public. It is not improper for the SBU to use Montgomery Auditorium for a campaign event. It is, however, improper to list such an event as an “HR Meeting”, which is precisely what happened.

On 13 July 2023 at 2:10pm, Local 696 Member Tony Leung, a Library employee, issued a daily calendar email, as he does every work day. In it, from 12pm-1:30pm, there is an event listed in Montgomery Auditorium as “HR Meeting.” That email and the daily calendar are attached.

On 14 July 2023 at 10:28am, SBU Candidate Mary Kachline sent out an email to a blind-copied list of members. The email read in its entirety, “SBU will be in the Central Library Montgomery Auditorium today from 12:00-1:30 pm.

Mary”

That email is also attached at the end of this protest.

By listing the event as “HR Meeting”, the SBU have misled the City and the Membership, falsely claiming that a campaign event for the SBU was an event hosted by the City of Philadelphia’s Office of Human Resources, misleading members as to the nature of what transpired in Montgomery Auditorium on 14 July, 2023 from 12:00pm-1:30pm.

We assert that this protest is, by itself, enough to overturn the results of the July 2023 AFSCME Local 696 election. This is the second time this year that Mary Kachline has been caught inappropriately conflating work, union, and campaign issues.

Protest 2: Bobby Davis

On 30 March 2023 as a result of the first 2023 Local 696 Election, Bobby Davis (Robert Davis, Bobby C. Davis) stepped down as President of Local 696. Between that time and the 7 June 2023 overturning of the election, Mr. Davis was hired by District Council 33 as a Special Advisor to President Ernest Garrett.

On 26 June 2023, candidates received an email listing the names and positions of the Election Committee. Bobby Davis is listed in this email as an advisor.

Mr. Davis is unable to serve on any committee in Local 696. He is not an employee of the City of Philadelphia. He is not a dues-paying member of Local 696. This alone is enough to raise alarm, but as an employee of District Council 33, his position as an advisor to the Election Committee constitutes election interference on behalf of the Council.

District Councils are explicitly barred from handling issues related to Locals. There is a clear delineation between the two entities that has been breached by Mr. Davis' conduct. His involvement is a clear conflict of interest.

Anthony Dinkins, president of Local 696, is fully aware that Mr. Davis is retired, and that his term as President ended on 30 March 2023. Dinkins is responsible for the forming of the Election Committee, and thus invited this conflict of interest into Local 696. Council President Ernest Garrett is also complicit for allowing Council Staff, Bobby Davis, to interfere in a local matter.

Protest 3: SBU Website & SBU Facebook page

www.sbu696.com www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=100090289405280

This protest is regarding the misuse of official Local 696 resources by the SBU slate during their election campaigning across multiple online platforms. (Every parenthetical screenshot number in the text of this protest corresponds to the same numbered screenshot in the supporting documentation that follows this charge.)

The Facebook page in question (Screenshot 00) was created on February 26, 2023. It was named “SBU” (Screenshot 01), but advertised the official phone number and union hall address for Local 696 (Screenshot 02), while also categorizing the page as a “Labor Union” page instead of as an “election campaign” page, and then posting an SBU campaign flier as the pages cover photo (Screenshot 03). Over the course of both elections and the time in between them, this Facebook page posted both official business that only Local 696 officers would have access to post (Screenshots 04 & 05) and SBU campaign material (Screenshots 06-10), side by side with each other on this one same Facebook page, including a campaign video post from Aurellia Harrell, an SBU candidate (Screenshot 10). On March 31, instead of creating a new separate Facebook page for official Local 696 business, SBU just updated the profile photo (Screenshot 12) and cover photo (Screenshot 13) for this page to Local 696 and DC 33 logos respectively. On May 4 they posted a QR code link to the “@SBULOCAL696” instagram page (Screenshot 14). Then on July 9 they switched back to posting campaign material again, this time sharing a link to a campaign video (<https://youtu.be/COr2h1L5Lxs>) featuring President Anthony Dinkins campaigning for SBU while wearing a “VOTE SBU” lapel pin (Screenshot 15). On July 9, Michelle Robinson, a known SBU supporter, posted to Philadelphia Municipal Workers Facebook group with: “For news, information and updates regarding local 696 please feel free to check our official Facebook page,” with a link to the Facebook page in question (Screenshot 16).

The Facebook page in question also directed members to www.sbu696.com (Screenshot 17), where the homepage named “Local 696” prominently featured that same Anthony Dinkins campaign video at the very top of the homepage (Screenshot 18). Other sections of this website were dedicated to official Local 696 business, like the “About the Officers,” “Calendar of Events,” “General Membership Meetings,” and “Steward/Delegates” pages (Screenshot 19). On July 13, an Anonymous user posted the sbu696.com link to Philadelphia Municipal Workers Facebook group again (Screenshot 20), and when Matt Catron asked why sbu696.com went down between elections, Anonymous replied that there was “no need to have [the SBU website] up” in between elections (Screenshot 21). Then Evelyn Flint commented on Anonymous’ PMW post asking if this was SBU “admitting that it’s a campaign site instead of the 696 site that it’s previously been advertised as” (Screenshot 22), and no one from either the SBU slate or the Local 696 officers ever denied it. On July 14 Anonymous commented that “If you noticed after the election it switched to the local’s website,” to which Matt Catron immediately replied with the correction that “it went down after the election, and is being used for campaign purposes” (Screenshot 23). After the election re-run was completed the website was completely taken down again (Screenshot 24). The Facebook page remains up as of the writing of this protest (Screenshot 25), however 696 leadership is now blocking at least one member, Evelyn Flint, from viewing content and interacting with other members on the official Facebook page (Screenshot 26).

If SBU was using the official 696 website and Facebook page for SBU campaigning, then that is a violation of the ban on using official union resources for personal election campaigning. Specifically, this would be a violation of Appendix D, Section 1, Sub-section A, because SBU used “other resources” of the “subordinate body” to support the candidacy of all their SBU slate candidates “for any elective office.”

But if SBU was using these SBU campaign pages for official 696 business, then that is a violation of the ban on using the name of the local to conduct unauthorized business like election campaigning. Specifically, this misuse of resources is a violation of Article X, Section 2, Sub-section H, because SBU was “using the name of the Federation or of a subordinate body in an unauthorized manner or for an unauthorized purpose.”

Either way, we request an official investigation into this blatant conflation of official Local 696 official union resources and business with unofficial SBU campaign materials to determine exactly which constitutional mandate SBU violated with their internet presences during the election.

Yea, I've seen this violation of Appendix D, Section 1 of the AFSCME Constitution, which states that "No funds or other resources of the Federation or of any subordinate body, and no funds or resources of any employer, shall be used to support the candidacy of any member for any elective office within the Federation or any subordinate body."

Already got screen shots too.

Anonymous member it went down after the election, and is being used for campaign purposes. That's an AFSCME International Constitution violation, which the SBU would know if they understood their own organization.

Protest 4: Union Card Submission

In AFSCME International Judicial Decision JPC 23-024, protest item 8 alleged that new members were unfairly denied their right to vote. Judicial Panel Member Denise Gilmore. At that time, we submitted insufficient evidence to prove our claim: Members who were hired by the City of Philadelphia between January and March were falsely documented as joining AFSCME on 23 March 2023, in spite of having signed union cards weeks or months earlier.

While those individuals have had their issues corrected, we have discovered the same behavior took place once again, this time with a group of new hires who went through union orientation with Mary Kachline, Mark Weaver, and Anthony Dinkins on 20 June 2023.

The election rules were explicit in their terms. Rule 3 states, in no uncertain terms. We do not have access to the complete list of employees hired by the City of Philadelphia on 20 June 2023, but eight have come forward and offered their names. They are as follows:

“Only members who have signed pledge card on file with District Council #33 by June 30, 2023 may vote.”

Robbie Molinari	Maya Robinson
Kass (Grant) Gaffney	Donna Hopkins
Thea Flurry	Anthony Silvestro
Scott Radway	Matthew Ransom

These eight individuals approached Rabble Rouser candidates with questions regarding their right to vote, their status as union members, and most importantly of all, their healthcare benefits.

In the interest of fairness to Kachline, Weaver, and Dinkins, 20 June 2023 was a confusing day at that work location. The orientation in question was interrupted by a building emergency at Parkway Central Library. The building was abruptly closed during the new hire orientation. The eight members listed above reported that they were told their initial union cards were misplaced as a result of that confusion, and they were asked to re-sign on 28 June 2023.

None of them received ballots, or were even told about their eligibility to vote.

AFSCME Local 696

Election Rules

1. The election is being administered by the American Arbitration Association. All inquiry about the election MUST be addressed by the election committee only.

Subject: Reference Letter for Anthony Dinkins for President of Local 696

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to support Anthony Dinkins for President of Local 696. Having worked directly with Anthony Dinkins while he held the position as the Business Agent for the last 4 years, I have had the privilege of witnessing firsthand his exceptional leadership qualities, dedication, and unwavering commitment to the well-being and betterment of the union and its members.

As an account manager for behavioral health services, I have witnessed firsthand the positive effects of Anthony Dinkins investment on his Union members and their families in regards to mental health. Anthony's commitment to tailoring services to meet every members unique needs and promoting long-term recovery shows he works diligently for his union members.

For members to openly discuss their behavioral health concerns with Anthony and actively pursue behavioral health services is truly commendable. It is evident that they trust, respect and understand the value of seeking professional help and are motivated to take the necessary steps towards healing and personal development.

His remarkable leadership abilities, integrity, advocacy for members, effective communication, and relationship-building skills make him an outstanding candidate for this role. I firmly believe that under his guidance, the union will thrive, and the interests of its members will be safeguarded and enhanced.

Should you require any additional information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Bernadette Banta
Account Manager

Protest 6: Mailing List

On 29 June 2023, Strassheim Graphic Design & Press, quoted via email the membership as 1062 and cited the cost for handling the campaign literature. 30 June 2023, after questioning the membership list and totals, I, Sharon Thorpe, received another email stating that they are now using the new mailing list that was used on the last union mailing. The membership is now cited at 1153.

Revised Election Rule #4. states: Mailings can only be requested through the union office. A sample of what is being mailed out must be attached to the request. The committee has selected Strassheim Printing or Cheltenham Printing to process the mailings. The cost of the mailings is the responsibility of each candidate. When I questioned Strassheim if they had received the membership mailing list from the Secretary-Treasurer of DC33, I was informed that they already had the list. During the Zoom meeting conducted on June 27, 2023 I was explicitly informed by Bobby Davis that the mail-out would follow the previous process, via the same printing agency, Strassheim.

According to the revised Election Committee Rules #5. States: At no time will a membership list in any form, be given to a Candidate or Slate. The SBU Slate, by their affiliation with Strassheim Printing, was provided with the membership list.

Strassheim is the company that oversees the printing and postal notification needs of Local 696. This arrangement was established under the administration of then-President Bobby Davis. They are also the same agency used during the March election.

Hi Sharon,

It was nice to speak to you the other day. Sorry about the delay. Below is the pricing for the mailing.

They just updated the list a couple of weeks ago, and the final count is 1,062 members. (The previous list was just over 1200).

Qty: 1,062 – Mailing, Address Supplied Stuffed Stamped Envelopes (either by imprint or labels), Deliver to Post Office - $87.48 + $7.00 (Sales Taxes) = Total $94.48

Let me know if you have any questions. Our address is below. When you come to drop off the mail – go to the loading dock in the rear of the building (middle entrance on Hamilton Street – between 15th & 16th Streets).

When you get there – call Eddy at 609-206-3221 on his cell – he will run down and get the mail from you at the dock. They will give you a heads up when they're about a half hour from finishing up and you can meet them at the dock again, inspect the mail and then follow them over to the post office at 30th Street.

Thank You,

Rachel Strassheim

Protest 7: Fatina El

Our final item of protest transcends election misconduct. It is so personal, so virulent, so egregious that in spite of the Judicial Panel's honorable commitment to resolving disputes between members without resort to courts and lawyers, we are consulting with external legal counsel.

Incumbent Treasurer Fatina El has executed a vile smear campaign against Candidate for Business Agent J. Matthew Catron. On 13 July 2023 at 5:00 PM, Treasurer El circulated an email to Local 696 workers in an attempt to imply that Mr. Catron is a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

The list of emails was not blind-copied, and contains two employer-owned email accounts. The email is attached below. The member who shared this with our team was so fearful of similar attacks from Treasurer El that they requested we redact their name from the record, and we have done so.

The email contains a photo of Mr. Catron from the year 2018, on a day when he found a tote bag branded with the Free Library of Philadelphia and put it on his head, as if it were a hat. It was a trivial, nonsensical event that was only worthy of documentation in its mild humor. The email then shows a photo of a red Klan hood on a mannequin, as if to imply that Mr. Catron was a member, or aspiring member, of one of the most repulsive hate groups in the history of the world. It also contains a Facebook post from 7 June 2023 where Mr. Catron used humor referencing the Lord of the Rings to comment on the Air Quality Alerts being issued by the National Weather Service at that time. The full text of the post is attached, but as it is still public, and will remain public, we are attaching a link for your digital convenience.

<https://www.facebook.com/J.Matthew.Catron/posts/pfbid0Z6thNANa1qBGvtdh5SSbjSpwqZVAdYZUTTPNrM3narYrfZ4AtdAVBQdF3BJULC2gl>

As a component part of this smear campaign, a second photo and Facebook post from Mr. Catron is also circulating, from around the same time. We do not know if Fatina El sent out these messages, as the AFSCME member who submitted them to Vice Presidential Candidate Deanna Jones also asked not to be named. The photo will be attached below, and we are submitting a direct link as well. Mr. Catron has chosen to let the post remain public, as it can not be interpreted as anything other than historical critique by a reasonable party.

<https://www.facebook.com/J.Matthew.Catron/posts/pfbid02CSrcXg2kNS7awugX5CZXcFK7PwEXr7PQQFXsb1vUU5AdPuxgPv3VCfnp466P8jdvI>

The photo that has circulated crops the caption of the photo, showing only the DVD cover of “Triumph of the Will” in Mr. Catron’s hand, a Nazi propaganda film cataloged and circulated by the Free Library of Philadelphia. The caption depicts a conversation between Mr. Catron and an unnamed coworker about the contents of the film, and specifically how it impacted the making of 1977’s Star Wars.

The post, the photo, and the comments below them condemn fascism and racism in all its forms.

We do not feel that it is necessary to explain to the Judicial Panel the potential harm caused to Mr. Catron’s reputation, his physical wellbeing, or his future employment prospects. Treasurer El’s conduct is libelous. It is defamation of character.

Fatina El was one of the reasons that Judicial Panel Member Denise Gilmore specifically cited in her overturning of the first Local 696 election in case JPC 23-024. El has demonstrated that she is unable or unwilling to disengage from such inappropriate conduct- indeed, the behavior described here is significantly worse than what was condemned in Gilmore’s June 7 decision.

In addition to this election protest, we will file charges against Treasurer El for her conduct, and Mr. Catron is currently consulting with legal counsel.

In Solidarity,

Fatina El

When I see stuff like this it's a reason he wanna get in that union he's a trumper and his goal is to really disband it for his people! He ain't slick

You know they don't like unions

Me: Coworker! Do you know what this is?

Coworker shakes their head.

Me: it's called "Triumph of the Will". It's a Nazi propaganda film from 1934. I'm astonished this is in our collection.

Coworker: ...okay

Me: George Lucas saw this when he was in film school. You know the throne room sequence from the end of the first Star Wars? Almost identical to a scene from this movie where Hitler is parading around and saluting his soldiers.

Coworker: That's... creepy.

Me: right? Let's see here... "Leni Riefenstahl, Adolf Hitler's hand-picked and favorite film director, worked for much of the Third Reich. She was a pioneer..."

Coworker: she? Wow! Equal opportunity for women. How progressive.

Me: as long as you're really racist

Closing remarks

After the 7 June 2023 overturning of the Local 696 election, we expected that the Election Committee and the candidates of the SBU would have learned and studied what sort of conduct is acceptable in an election. We have studied Appendix D of the AFSCME International Constitution 2022 extensively and we have read, and re-read, the AFSCME Local Union Election Manual. We have done our due diligence and have acted appropriately according to the rules of AFSCME on all levels: Local, Council, and International.

It is terribly upsetting to learn that not only has the behavior of leadership remained unchanged, some elements have increased in scale. The Election Committee chaired by Darlene Booker-Jones and advised by former President Bobby Davis have proven unfit for their duties. We request that AFSCME International intervene directly by conducting the election themselves to ensure that the membership of Local 696 have a proper election- one free from interference, intimidation, libel, and misconduct.
